THE CENSUS.

All Reports in but One—Result
Not Satisfactory.

Mayor Lang Will Have a Called
Meeting of the Council
Monday Evening.

Mayor Lang this morning gave the following figures to the Sun, as the result of the census taken by the enumerators appointed a short time ago by the council. All are correct, with the exception of the figures in the Third ward, compiled by Prof. H. B. Lyon, who is now out of the city. They are about correct, however, and even if they should not be, it is claimed that there would be no material difference in the result.

First ward, 4414; Second, 2722; Third, 1800; Fourth, 2380; Fifth, 2662; Sixth, 4908.

Mayor Lang claims that he does not think that there will be any effort to prevent the council from paying the enumerators. He appears to be very pleased with the result of the census. As will be seen, the result as shown by the figures is 18,086, nearly a thousand under the requisite number.

To most people this census will be very unsatisfactory. In the first place, Zorn claims to have found over $1,000 two years ago, and since then in addition to the steady growth of Paducah, the cordage factory and other enterprises have brought hundreds of newcomers into Paducah, and just now many people are out of the city for weeks. Considering these facts, at the various resorts and have been the enumerators have done their work in a remarkably short time, and few people will think that it is a correct census.

Mayor Lang stated that he would call the council to meet Monday night in special session to hear the report of the enumerators, and also to consider a few other matters. One of these is the appointment of Officer Frank Sweeney to the position of overseer of the chain gang, and the appointment of extra officer Tobe Eitter to a place on the regular force, which he overlooked at the meeting Monday night.

SHIPPED TO LOUISVILLE.

Oliver Hall Stranded in Arkansas and Had no Way to Get Home.

Oliver Hall, an aged man who appeared to be at least seventy years old, this morning applied to Mayor Lang for assistance to reach his home in Louisville.

He told a pitiable tale of suffering in the wilds of Arkansas, where he went to make ties. Finally he could work no longer, and for sometime past has been working his way home. He was given a ticket to Princeton by the mayor.

TO SUMMON WITNESSES.

Deputy Marshal La Rue Has Gone to Marshall County.

Deputy United States Marshal La Rue went to Marshall county this morning to summon witnesses in the post-office robbery case against Horace Powell, in jail here. The case against Powell is set for Monday before U. S. Commissioner Puryear, who is expected home tomorrow from Atlantic City.

NOTICE.

The public schools of the city begin Monday, Sept. 11, 1899. For the purpose of examining and giving entrance cards to those needing them I will be in my office, in the Longfellow building, corner Fifth and Court streets, every day next week. Pupils will do well to avail themselves of this opportunity and avoid the usual rush the opening morning.

GEO. O. M'BROOM.

GUERIN HOLDS OUT.

PARIS, August 25.—Deeply suspicious of firemen's hose in Rue Chabon the anti-Semites, Guerin and his party, spent another night on the roof of the house last night. They feared firemen would flood the house through a chimney. The police today were surprised to find chicken bones in Guerin's ash barrel. They cannot comprehend how Guerin could get chicken and believe the watch on the house is growing lax.

LYNCHING SURE

This is What is Predicted at Fulton Tonight Without a Doubt.

MATTHEW M'FALL CAPTURED

He Was to Have Been Taken at Fulton Last Night, But Was Not.

MOB AT DEPOT THIS MORNING

Matthew McFall, the negro who has been so eagerly sought by residents of Fulton for several days past for an attempted assault on the young daughter of Mr. L. E. Clapp, by whom he was employed, is reported to have been captured in Princeton yesterday. When the news reached Fulton there was great excitement, and it was forthwith announced that he would be lynched.

McFall had not been identified, and it was attempted to have him brought here and identified and then taken straight through to Fulton on the same train, the fast mail which passed here at 3:55 this morning. This was not done, however, and it was then announced that he would be brought through this afternoon and taken to Fulton.

There was great excitement in Fulton last night, and when the train stopped there this morning at 5 o'clock there were about 500 people at the depot, expecting the negro to be aboard. The disappointment was great, as McFall is accused of a most dastardly crime, his intended victim being a girl at whose house he had been employed and with whom she had been trusted. He will most certainly be hanged if taken here. It has been only a few days since they hanged one negro there.

This afternoon, contrary to expectations, the negro was not brought through on the train from Princeton, en route to Fulton. Marshal Collins this afternoon received a telegram from Marshal Jesse Walker, of Fulton, asking if Ben Captor was here with McFall, the rapist. Marshal Collins replied that if he was he did not know. It seems from the telegram that the Fulton authorities do not know where the negro is.

NOW IN NEW JERSEY.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Guests of the Hobarts.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., August 25.—President McKinley and wife and Vice President Hobart and Mrs. Hobart arrived at Hollywood this morning. An immense throng greeted the presidential party at the depot. The president and wife were driven immediately to the Hobart cottage. The buildings along the road were beautifully decorated. Troop C, of Brooklyn, acted as escort. The president and party review the military tournament and athletic games this afternoon.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY.

John Franklin Flora, of Fulton, Trigg county, this morning filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in the United States court here. His liabilities are about $1,000.

ANOTHER ARRIVAL.

MANILA, P. I., Aug. 25.—The transport Ohio arrived this morning from San Francisco with two companies of the Nineteenth Infantry and some recruits.

ASSASSINS THREATEN LABOR.

PARIS, Aug. 25.—The Figaro says today that M. Labori had been made very nervous over the receipt of anonymous letters threatening the assassination of her husband, herself and their children.

NOTICE TO SALOON KEEPER.

It appears to have been the decision of the revenue authorities that the bonds given by saloon keepers to the city of Paducah, shall bear each a fifty-cent revenue stamp. This holds against all licenses issued since July 1, 1899. You are hereby notified to call on the city clerk at once and affix such stamp to any bond you have given the city since said time.

25a36 JAS. M. LANG, Mayor.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

All persons are hereby notified that it is in violation of the law of the city to bathe in the grave pit Guthrie's park. Much complaint has been coming in from this source, and officers have been directed to arrest any or all who may be found violating this law.

25a36 JAS. M. LANG, Mayor.

NEW SALOON.

Mr. William Stevens, who had been in the saloon business at Grand Chain, Ill., for twenty years past, will tomorrow morning open up a fine saloon at 105 South Second street, where the newest and best of everything will be served. Mr. B. Cox, the popular mixologist, will be in charge of the bar.

WITHOUT MEANS.

This is the Way Mrs. Annie Mayes Struck Paducah.

Was Deserted in Dover, Tenn., By Her Husband—Applied to Mayor Lang.

Mrs. Annie Mayes, an intelligent and rather pretty young woman applied to the mayor last evening for assistance. She was here without means, and begged a place to spend the night. She was sent to a neighboring boarding house and well taken care of.

This morning she stated to a reporter that she was deserted in Dover, Tenn., by her husband, who cruelly mistreated her, and that she hoped she would never see him again. She took passage on a steamboat, and got off at Grand Rivers, being sent here on yesterday afternoon's train by kindly disposed people. She has no relatives here, and none anywhere except an afflicted brother, who is unable to assist her. She desires to remain in Paducah and get work, and with this in view called on Mayor Lang again this morning.

The young woman was sent to the House for the Friendless by the mayor, and will likely be given a place there until she can find a better one.

THE FAIR.

Mayor Lang Expresses His Views Most Forthrightly.

Mayor Lang was this morning asked in regard to his views on the street fair. He stated emphatically that he was opposed to anything that would result in a suspension of the law in order to make it successful. "I am in favor of anything that will help bring the people here and benefit the city," he declared, "but I am opposed to anything like 'chuck-huck,' three card monte, 'tin horses,' and such things, which I understand will be very essential to the success of the street fair. The law must not be violated."

He did not say that he would in any way interfere with a street fair, but merely replied to the question above named, in the manner mentioned. The project is as yet in embryo, and it is not known what will be the outcome of the enterprise.

AFTER HER HUSBY.

Mrs. Frances Glass Wants to Know "How Bout It."

Marshal Collins is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Frances Glass, of 609 Second street, Evansville, asking about her husband, Henry Glass, who is in jail here charged with housebreaking. She states she heard he was in the penitentiary, and wants to find out whether he went up from Kentucky, or Metropolis, Ill. It is said he has been in the penitentiary in Indiana. Mrs. Glass says she wants to get a divorce.

THREE RINGS STOLEN.

W. Chesterfield's House Entered Last Night.

A thief entered the residence of Mr. W. Chesterfield, the canning factory man, who resides near Tenth and Jones, and stole three fine rings. The thief was committed last night, and the thief left no clue. It is supposed that the same man who visited Mr. Chesterfield visited Mr. Vantress.

NO SUNDAY SPEAKING.

Mayor Lang has refused to grant the use of Yeller park to the socialists for a Sunday meeting. One of the leaders applied to the mayor today for the use of the park, but the mayor flatly declined to let it for any other than religious purposes on Sunday. He informed the gentlemen that they could have it free of charge with electric lights thrown in on any other day—but not on Sunday except for preaching.

AT THE PARK.

The new play, "Hickory Farm," will be presented tonight. This is a very pleasing comedy drama of New England life. It contains a great deal of comedy and is altogether just the sort of a piece that the majority of theatre goers like to witness. The regular Friday night dance will be given in the new pavilion.

SUIT ON ACCOUNT.

Dr. J. W. Fendley this morning filed suit in the circuit court against Bettie Harmon and others for $99 claimed to be due on account for professional services rendered.

JUDGE ROBERTS DEAD.

BARDWELL, Ky., Aug. 25.—Judge James Roberts, one of the oldest hotel men in this end of the state and here yesterday. He was a native of Henry county and served in the revenue service under Cleveland's last administration.

WARMER TOMORROW.

RAILROAD NOISE

Big Excursion to Louisville Tonight Over the Illinois Central.

EXODUS FROM NEW ORLEANS

Memphis Passenger Train Delayed Over Four Hours This Morning.

PRESIDENT FISH IN PADUCAH

The Illinois Central's $2 excursion to Louisville, from Dyersburg, Tenn., will pass through Paducah at 6:15 o'clock tonight, and the prospects are for a large crowd out of here. At Princeton several extra coaches will be picked up from the Evansville division, and it is expected that by the time the train reaches Louisville there will be twelve coaches.

Tomorrow the Illinois Central will run an excursion to New Orleans, and for several days past all the available sleepers and other coaches have been annulled down to accommodate the crowd. The rail will probably have to run in several sections, as it is thought that at least 3,500 people will go. The train will pass through Fulton.

Last night one of the sleepers being taken to New Orleans for the excursion tomorrow, jumped the track at Filippi, Tenn., and derailed the cannonball, due at 1:22 this morning from Memphis, over four hours. The sleeper was being taken to the Crescent City by a freight train.

President Steyn, and party and Superintendent of Transportation J. W. Higgins, of the Illinois Central, Chicago, who passed through the city yesterday en route to Louisville, passed through again this afternoon en route back. They have been out on a tour of inspection. Trainmaster Flynn went up this morning and met them at Greenville, accompanying them to Paducah. Supt. Harahan also came down.

Chief Dispatcher Allen Jorden and family will return this afternoon from a ten days' visit at relatives in Boston, Mass.

Mr. James W. Stahner, an American Express messenger well known in the city, and who formerly resided here and had rooms at Mr. W. H. Patterson's on Jefferson street, was married a few days ago to Mrs. Maggie O'Flannigan, of Nashville, at the latter place. Mr. Stahner now runs between Fulton and Louisville, and passes through Paducah every other day.

Many of the Chicago excursionists are coming home in squads, and report an enjoyable time. The long ride made a few of them ill, and they did not remain but a day, but most of them staid the limit.

Superintendent of Transportation J. W. Higgins arrived this afternoon from Louisville, but contrary to expectations, President Fish did not get in. Mr. Higgins was accompanied by Superintendent Harahan and trainmaster, and will inspect the terminal here.

OPENING PLAY.

Will Not Be Long Until Morton's Opera-House Reopens.

Manager Terrell has finished booking attraction for Morton's opera house, and has secured some of the best on the road. Theater goers would doubtless agree, could they see the bookings, that no better attractions could be procured by a town this size. But Manager Terrell is averse to showing his bookings.

The season at Morton's this year opens with Lincoln J. Carter's "Remember the Maine," which has proven such a success elsewhere, and which was seen here last season. It is a scenic melodrama of great strength and will doubtless attract a large crowd. "Remember the Maine" will be played at Morton's opera house on Thursday, September 7, two weeks from last night, and will be followed the next night by Richards & Pringles' minstrel. The season will then be well occupied for the remainder of the fall and winter.

DOUBLE HANGING.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Aug. 25.—Silas Brown and Matthew Craig were hanged here this morning for murder. A daughter of Craig's victim witnessed the execution and smiled as the drop fell.

EXPERTS TESTIFY

In the Dreyfus Case Today Pro and Con.

Banket Says Dreyfus Did Not Kill Bordereau, and Bertillon Says He Did.

RENNES, France, Aug. 25.—Row and Strong, the Paris correspondent of the London Observer, and the only English witness to testify before the court, was the first witness heard in the Dreyfus court-martial today. He told how he tried to buy Esterhazy's confession for publication and said Esterhazy admitted that he wrote the bordereau. When Esterhazy quitted prison he told Strong several times that he would sell all and said it would ruin Dr. Clam and all who abandoned him. Strong said Esterhazy impressed him as being a thorough crook and swindler. The testimony of an officer named Wahl, a friend of Esterhazy, before the court of cassation, was next read. Then Leque, a clerk in the war office, testified alleging that Dreyfus once looked over his shoulder while he was copying a secret document. Labori declined to cross-examine this witness.

St. Gobert, the handwriting expert of the Bank of France, was then called. Gobert told how he was originally called by the war office to examine the bordereau. After comparing it with the specimen of Dreyfus' handwriting he declared from first to last it was not the work of the accused. Gobert was called to confront the witness. Gobert said Gobert was wrong in the details of his testimony whereupon the expert earnestly demonstrated the correctness of all he had said.

Gobert retired discomfited, but insisted that Dreyfus had known the witness in the bank. Dreyfus denied emphatically that he had ever known Gobert. The rest of the day's session was given over to the testimony of M. Bertillon, head of the Anthropometric department of Paris police and who maintains he has proved Dreyfus the author of the bordereau. By his system the witness produced the bordereau in twelve minutes and claimed Dreyfus could have done the same. Bertillon presented his copy of the bordereau to the judges, who examined it closely. Finally Col. Jouhaux leaned back and shrugged his shoulders as though dissatisfied. Dreyfus regarded Bertillon with astonishment. Labori and Demange when shown Bertillon's diagrams looked then over with scant interest.

In one of Bertillon's statements, which was made in a high voice of conviction, he said, "Bordereau obeys geometrical rhythm and I have discovered equation of it on prisoner's blotting paper."

Labori said after trial Bertillon reproduced a certain resemblance of Dreyfus' writing, but that was all and that witness was just a clever forger.

Mr. W. P. Campbell, of the Cincinnati Post, who had been interviewing politicians of various affiliations, left the city this morning for Hopkinsville, to continue his work.

"It is really useless work," he said this morning, "as there is no way to tell anything about the political situation. I find that the Taylor men say that Taylor is going to be elected, the Goebel men say that Goebel will be elected, and the Brown men say that Brown will be elected, and all give you the 'most reliable' figures to bolster up their cause."

TOUGH PROBLEM.

Mr. W. P. Campbell, of the Cincinnati Post, who had been interviewing politicians of various affiliations, left the city this morning for Hopkinsville, to continue his work.

"It is really useless work," he said this morning, "as there is no way to tell anything about the political situation. I find that the Taylor men say that Taylor is going to be elected, the Goebel men say that Goebel will be elected, and the Brown men say that Brown will be elected, and all give you the 'most reliable' figures to bolster up their cause."

"Of course no one knows anything about it, as it is impossible to tell just how many voters there are or how many anything else there are. We do the best we can, however, interviewing men of every political faith, and then make our own decision, which after all is of no use, nothing but opinions, based on other opinions, and all are fallible."

Mr. Campbell is a pleasant gentleman to meet, and intelligent and interesting to chat. He made many friends here, and interviewed all the prominent politicians.

WHAT'S NEXT AT THE ARCADE?

EXAGGERATED, NO DOUBT.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—A Reuter dispatch from Labuan Island, near north British Borneo, says according to reliable advices from Manila, an indescribable state of anarchy prevails in the Philippines. Advices say the Americans in Luzon hold territory only within fifteen miles of Manila and occupy a radius of only nine miles about Iloilo and only a small radius about Cebu, all the rest of the country being in the hands of Filipinos. The dispatch also says the insurgents murdered the crew of the steamer Saturnus, which was burned by Filipinos near San Fernando August 2.
